

Pedagogical Recommendations

To use this booklet effectively, there are some suggested pedagogical recommendations.

A/ Reading Comprehension:

As far as this part is concerned, before reading the text look at the picture and / or take into account the pre-reading to get a general idea of the content.

Then, read through the text carefully without being stopped by unfamiliar words which will be explained afterwards.

Then, read the questions carefully to be able to answer correctly.

The tasks which follow, are given for practice of the main language forms introduced in the text. They are fairly varied and graded in terms of difficulty.

B/ Grammar :

Tasks :

For this part, there are various tasks which allow you to improve your English.

The instructions for each task are given in both languages : English and Arabic; read them carefully before doing them.

C/ Remember :

This part summarizes the main language points and forms presented . Read its content and make sure, before moving to the next unit, that everything has been learned.

D/ Keys :

Finally compare your answers with the keys in the end of each dispatch to check that you are making progress.
